

Congratulations on being nominated for the 1993 President's Volunteer Action Award. Volunteer community service like yours is essential if we are to address successfully the critical social problems facing our Nation. By giving generously of your time in serving others, you have set a fine example for all Americans. Although you were not chosen as a recipient of this year's award, you are nevertheless a vital agent of renewal in your community. On behalf of the American people, I thank and commend you.
